ALANNAH HARRISON

Win, Place or Die LarCol

Can one bad decision change your life? While recuperating from her biggest mistake, Harriet's had time to plan a fresh start, away from the city. With a business plan on her laptop and determination in her heart, she leaves Sydney, heading north. It's a long drive and she's only just beginning to heal, so she's booked a stopover at Barrington Homestead on the way. Harriet meets Drummond Murray on the road to Barrington. He's a cattle farmer and fifth generation local. Impeccable manners but not much warmth. She has no choice but to accept his assistance, but she's not keen to see him again. In contrast, Ben Evans is a local stock and station agent, good humoured, warm and welcoming. Except Harriet isn't looking for romance and she's keen to continue her journey north. Circumstances conspire to keep her in Barrington and after months of feeling helpless, feeling needed strikes a chord. A cast of local characters and new friendships make her wonder if this might just be her place to start over.

A devoted cat person describes her evolution into a dog lover, following her and her family's experiences with a neurotic rescued beagle named Sasha, describing her unsuccessful studies to become a pet psychic, a visit to the Department of Homeland Security to watch bomb-sniffing canines in action, and the transformation of Sasha from a skittish stray into a wonderful pet. Reprint.

Breeding The Babysitter #22: Diana Penguin

For anyone - and everyone - thinking about bringing a dog into their life. BEFORE YOU RESCUE, ADOPT, OR BUY A DOG, READ THIS BOOK! Each year, too many dogs get surrendered, returned, or abandoned; not because they are bad dogs, and not even because the people involved are bad—but because bad choices were made. Every one of those families intended to care for the dog forever. So what went wrong? When a dog is ill-matched to its family, it is the dog that is blamed. It is the dog that is given away, or worse. Deciding to get a dog should be steeped in honest assessment, knowledge, and planning. Caring for a dog requires the same. There is a lot to know and a lot to consider.

"How to Pick a Puppy" is the perfect guide for choosing and then caring for the right dog for you. This concise, yet thorough, guide provides a practical road map to successfully choose and care for a dog. · Discover the breed that is right for you and your lifestyle · Find a puppy who suits your personality · Read which supplies are necessary; which are not · Get tips for choosing a compatible vet, trainer, and boarding kennel · Examine feeding options and basic dog care · Learn how to travel or relocate safely with your dog · ...and so much more! "How to Pick a Puppy, Choosing and Caring for Your Forever Dog " is for anyone - and everyone - who is considering bringing a dog into their life. BECAUSE EVERY DOG DESERVES A FOREVER HOME!

What the Dog Did Penguin

"The Iowa Breeding Bird Atlas"—the first comprehensive statewide survey of Iowa's breeding birds—provides a detailed record of the composition and distribution of the avifauna of the Hawkeye State. The atlas documents the presence of 199 species, 158 of which were confirmed breeding. This landmark volume will alert Iowans to the limited distribution of numerous species and serve as a guide to the management practices—such as forest and wetland management, set-aside programs, reduction in farm chemical use, and crop diversity—which could help insure that many future changes are positive ones. "The Iowa Breeding Bird Atlas" provides a welcome and much-needed baseline for future comparisons of changes in Iowa's birdlife and, by extension, the lives of all animals in the state.

Lucian Roman knows he must stay away from Bronwyn Kettler for sanity's sake. Since feeding her his blood, he can think of nothing else but possessing her—fighting an uncontrollable desire to kill her, if need be, and the vampire she has sworn to wed. Bronwyn, a brilliant vampire genealogist, can never escape her connection to Lucian. He sustained her when she was starving. He still rules her dreams. And when the nights get dark enough, she still craves him. Though his essence still courses through her body, she has found a true mate in someone else. But when a dangerous enemy threatens Bronwyn, only Lucian—bound to her forever by blood—can save her life. Even if it means sacrificing his own...

A second edition of the beloved guide to farm animals. When the going gets tough, the tough . . . start raising their own food. In the first full-color guide of its kind, author and small farm owner Laura Childs reveals exactly what it takes to start raising your own animals, including chickens, geese, goats, sheep, pigs, and cows. Childs discusses what you can expect to harvest from your animals—from eggs to milk to meat to wool—based on her own real-life experiences. Whether you want to raise a few chickens for eggs alone, try your hand at a few goats with the intention of making your own cheese, or sustain your family and make some extra money from raising cows and selling beef, this is the book for you. Childs explains how to get started and everything you need to know about successfully raising each animal, including: • Comparison of breeds • Designing your farm strategy • Preparing a home for your livestock • What to feed your animals • Animal health • Breeding • Milking, laying eggs, and butchering This invaluable guide is the perfect first book for anyone interested in starting a backyard barnyard or a small farm—or simply dreaming about the idea.

Books 13 & 14 of the USA Today Bestselling Series! ANGEL Dr. Angel Savary is dedicated to his skills as a Healer. After the death of his mother, he's determined never to fail another Pantera. But when he's kidnapped by a human female, he discovers that her brutal past offers the answers he's been seeking. Even more astonishing, she stirs his cat with a ruthless need to claim her. Suddenly, he realizes there's more to life than duty. Indy's life has been one of grim survival. The last thing she wants is the distraction of a lover. Until she captures Angel. The Pantera is stunningly gorgeous and sexy as hell. Unfortunately, she hasn't captured him to fulfill her fantasies. As much as she might ache with the need to give in to their mutual passion, he's the only hope she has of saving the child she's rescued from a ruthless enemy who threatens to destroy them all. HISS Caged like the beast he is, Hiss—former Hunter and traitor to the Pantera—has accepted his fate as a tortured prisoner in the hideous experimentation lab known as the Sub. In fact, he wishes death would come more quickly. Until he connects with the female in the cage beside him, that is. As he helps his fellow captive through her pain and her nightmares, she forces him to envision the possibility of forgiveness after the hell he's wrought on his kind. But when their captors plan to use her in their brutal breeding program, Hiss has no choice but to attempt a risky escape. Stunning and fierce, Gia used to be a water Hunter in her shifter sect before she was abducted and tossed in the lab for blood drains, and worse. Threatened with a hopeless future as a lab brood mare, escape seems like her only possibility for survival. After refusing to give herself to the breeding program, she escapes with Hiss to his Wildlands. Giving Hiss her heart and her loyalty in the face of the Pantera's overwhelming guilt, all she expects in return is his honesty. But when she wakes up one morning to find him gone, will she too deem him a traitor to their love?

They were on a tropical beach instead of suffering in the cold Washington DC air. Just the warm sand, surf, and their naked bodies. Everywhere they touched, it felt like they were one. It was a bliss that Diana had never known. He was leaning over her. Blocking out everything. Any other time, she would have wanted to be captivated by this place but instead, there was only him. Her thighs were opened and they cradled his hard body. Welcoming. Her hands held him close. Desperate. Her lips opened for his kiss. Yearning. Her core was demanding his presence. Dripping with need so strong...

Shortlisted for Harper's Bazaar Book of the Year 2019 A Guardian, Spectator and Mail on Sunday Book of the Year 2018 'A lyrical portrait of a fast-vanishing way of life . . . Thompson is a terrific writer' New Statesman Laura Thompson's grandmother Violet was one of the great landladies. Born in a London pub, she became the first woman to be given a publican's licence in her own name and, just as pubs defined her life, she seemed in many ways to embody their essence. Laura spent part of her childhood in Violet's Home Counties establishment, mesmerised by her gift for cultivating the mix of cosiness and glamour that defined the pub's atmosphere, making it a unique reflection of the national character. Her memories of this time are just as intoxicating: beer and ash on the carpets in the morning, the deepening rhythms of mirth at night, the magical brightness of glass behind the bar... Through them Laura traces the story of the English pub, asking why it has occupied such a treasured position in our culture. But even Violet, as she grew older, recognised that places like hers were a dying breed, and Laura also considers the precarious future they face. Part memoir, part social history, part elegy, The Last Landlady pays tribute to an extraordinary woman and the world she epitomised.
